

Alpine

Quick Facts:

Source: Sandag

Population: 16,681

Occupied Homes: 5,853

Total Households: 6,108

Median Age: 38.2

Median Household Income (1999):
$63,115

Median Housing Value $ 287,423

Location:

Nestled among the foothills 28 miles east of San Diego, Alpine is located just five to ten minutes away from El Cajon off I-8. Conveniently situated, Alpine supplies travelers with last minute needs just before venturing off on trips to nearby mountains or deserts. Within minutes is the Viejas Casino, offering entertainment as well as factory outlet shopping with brand name stores.

Climate:

Alpine has been recognized as having "the most equable climate in the country." Because of Alpine's location, its climate takes on characteristics of inland valleys and mountains with average winter highs of 66 degrees and lows of 42 degrees. An average summer high temperature is 89 degrees with a low average of 59 degrees. Alpine's precipitation average is 2.59 inches in the winter and 0.173 inches in the summer.

Picture source: Back Country Land Trust

Discovered over 1,000 years ago by the Kumeyaay Indians, with some continuing to live there, Alpine is a semi-rural town with a population of about 17,000. Located in eastern San Diego County, Alpine is known for its admirable climate with warm summer days and cool nights. Residents enjoy the small town's charming atmosphere, while visitors and passer-bys take in the attractions and conveniences of the area.

Local Government:

Alpine is an unincorporated area of San Diego County, administered by a five-member Board of Supervisors each of whom are elected to a term of four years.

Alpine Chamber of Commerce:

(619) 445-2722

Office of Trade & Business Development:

5201 Ruffin Road, Suite N

San Diego, CA 92123

(858) 495-5494

Toll Free: (866) 402-6044

www.co.san-diego.ca.us

Business Percent

Education/Health 18.0

Retail trade 11.0

Construction 15.0

Manufacturing 7.0

Professional 10.0

Source: Sandag

Getting Down to BUSINESS
in San Diego County